Keynote Address

When the City Comes to You

Abstract

Half of new urban residents in China are people who have never left their home village but have been designated urban residents via expansion of administrative boundaries. Thus rather than going to the city, the city has come to them. Yet to date most research on new urbanites has focused on those who left their villages and moved to new towns or cities. Using a 2018 household survey ( N=3,229 ) designed to assess quality of life among residents in newly urbanized areas, we demonstrate how integrating information on place of residence improves (but also complicates) explanations for variation in self-reported health, overall satisfaction, and perceptions of low social status.

Speaker: Deborah Davis

Professor Emerita of Sociology, Yale University

Bio

Deborah Davis joined the Yale Department of Sociology as a lecturer in 1978 and retired as Full Professor in 2018 during which time she held fellowships from the National Academy of Sciences, National Institute of Aging, Luce Foundation, Templeton Foundation, Ford Foundation, and the ACLS. During her forty years on the Yale faculty Davis served as Director of Academic Programs at the Yale Center for Study of Globalization , as Chair of the Department of Sociology, and as of Co-Chair of the Women Faculty Forum. Since 2016 she has been a Distinguished Visiting Professor at Fudan University in Shanghai and on the faculty of the Schwarzman College at Tsinghua University. She also serves on the editorial boards of The China Quarterly and The China Review and is a Trustee of the Yale China Association.

CALL FOR DONATIONS

Dear Friends,

We are writing to encourage you to contribute to the ICSA Nan Lin Graduate Student Paper Award Fund in the honor of Dr. Nan Lin. The fund will be used to reward young scholars engaging in innovative research on Chinese societies. Our fundraising target is $20,000.

Dr. Nan Lin is Oscar L. Tang Professor Emeritus of Sociology at Duke University. As a world-renowned and highly respected sociologist, he has published substantive seminal work and mentored multiple generations of scholars in and beyond the research field of Chinese societies for about five decades. He especially played a vital role in the rebirth of sociology in China in the late 1970s, and has made significant contributions to the development of sociology in the Greater China region.

Dr. Nan Lin is also the founder and the inaugural President of the North American Chinese Sociologists Association (NACSA) from 1981 to 1990, which was renamed as the International Chinese Sociological Association (ICSA) in spring 2018. The Board of ICSA unanimously approved to rename the “Graduate Student Paper Award” as the “Nan Lin Graduate Student Paper Award” in spring 2018. The rationale for this change is to recognize Nan’s pioneer and significant contributions to the association and to the research area on Chinese societies, and to inspire the research endeavors of future generations of young scholars working on Chinese societies.

Annually the ICSA Graduate Student Paper Award Committee selects one graduate student paper and announces the award at the dinner of the ICSA annual conference. The ICSA Nan Lin Graduate Student Paper Award Fund will be used to recognize and reward emerging young scholars in the study of Chinese societies through a cash prize of 500 USD. ICSA will use the fund as the principal to yield bank interests to pay for the cash prize.

To reach the fundraising goal in Dr. Nan Lin's honor, we are writing to his colleagues, collaborators, students, postdocs, and friends to make the push. Nan has been a colleague, mentor and friend to many of us throughout our careers. He has befriended and adopted us into his intellectual family. We know that you have many opportunities to make worthy charitable donations. We hope that you will consider supporting the ICSA community in honoring Nan’s contributions. You do not need to be an ICSA member in order to make a donation. We will gladly publish the names of contributors on the ICSA website.

You can make your donation in two ways. You can donate online via PayPal Giving Fund (<https://www.paypal.com/us/fundraiser/charity/1705707>). PayPal covers all fees. After you donate online, you will receive your PayPal Giving Fund tax receipt by email.

The other way is to mail a check (with “International Chinese Sociological Association” on the pay-to-order line and “Nan Lin Award Fund” on the memo line) to the following address. After receiving your check, ICSA will send you a receipt by mail.

International Chinese Sociological Association
